

Romsey Action AGM

Tuesday 2nd October 2012 in the Jordan Room, Romsey Mill

(corner of Hemingford Road and Mill Road)

All local residents and traders and folk with an interest in Romsey are welcome to attend this open meeting. Only members may vote.

7.00 pm Welcome and a chance to sign up for membership if you haven't already done so. This is optional and costs £1 for the year to Oct 2013

7.15 pm Prompt start to AGM business:

Minutes of the last AGM

Matters arising

Chair's report

Treasurer's report

Election of officers to serve in 2012/13

Action Plan for 2012/13

AOB

8.15 Introduction of Ceri Littlechild, the new Mill Road Co-ordinator. Ceri will explain her post and its responsibilities and also take questions and suggestions

8.30 Andrew Bush will speak on 'A local estate agent's view of evolving Romsey'.

Andrew will also take questions

9.00 Refreshments and socialising

9.20 Vacate the premises, yet again thanking Romsey Mill for their hospitality

Although the AGM has to get through certain important business, not least recruiting active committee members to take on key roles such as web-manager and recruitment officer, this will be a neighbourly, informative meeting with a chance to meet and make friends.

Please come!

